

592 Chase Road Henry Howland House

This house is celebrating its 300th birthday this year. It is assumed to have been built by Henry Howland (b. 1672, d. 1729) a local builder, circa 1718.

The date has been partially based on title and survey documents. The house is described as being of Colonial Georgian style and consists of 11 rooms including a center chimney plan with 7 fireplaces on the first and second floors.
